

BIOGRAPHY
LTC DAVID E. WAINSCOTT [RET}

- Commissioned 2Lt. Eastern Kentucky University ROTC in 1970.
- He attended Ordnance Officers Basic Course, Aberdeen proving Grounds, MD. He was then assigned as Staff Supply Officer to United States Army Material Command Europe, Zweibrucken, Germany 1970 to 1972.
- Teacher Jefferson County Board of Education and Test Officer Test Section, 100th Army Reserve Division [Training]1972 to 1977.
- Graduated from the Armor Officers Advanced Course. Fort Knox, KY 1977.
- Placed on Active Duty as Reserve Recruiting and Retention Manager with additional duty as Company Commander Leadership Academy 100th Division [Training] Louisville, KY.1977 to 1978.
- Assigned as Reserve operations Officer Louisville District Recruiting Command 1978 to 1982.
- Served as the first Professor Of Military Science for the University of Louisville Army ROTC. 1982 to 1984.
- Graduated from Command and General Staff Officers College Fort Leavenworth, KS. 1985.
- Assigned as Armor Officers Personnel Manager Army Reserve Personnel Center St Louis, MO 1985 to 1987.
- Assigned as Reserve Course Development Officer for the Armor School, Fort Knox, KY. 1987 to 1991.
- Assigned as Mobilization Officer First U.S, Army, Fort Meade, Md 1991 to Retirement in 1995.
- Teacher Shelby County Board of Education 1995 to Retirement in 2008.
- He presently volunteers in twelve fifth grade classes producing murals for display in four schools in Shelby County, KY, and serves on the UofL Alumni Association Army ROTC Alumni Council's Board.